About FACEIT 2027

The International Conference FACEIT-2027 aims to create a dynamic forum for researchers, academicians, engineers, and industry professionals to exchange knowledge, foster innovation, and advance the state of computing and engineering sciences. As the boundaries between computing technologies and engineering applications continue to blur, FACEIT 2027 provides a unique interdisciplinary platform to discuss transformative trends, challenges, and breakthroughs shaping the future of intelligent systems.

Important Dates

- Paper Submission Deadline: March 25, 2027
- Notification of Acceptance : April 20, 2027
- Camera Ready Submission : April 25, 2027
- Registration Deadline : April 25, 2027

FACEIT 2026 successfully published its proceedings 17 days before the conference, reflecting our commitment to timely publication through strict deadline management. FACEIT 2027 will uphold the same commitment. All deadlines will be strictly enforced, and no extensions will be granted. Authors are requested to plan their submissions accordingly.

Call for Papers

Track 1: Advanced Computing and Systems

- Cloud, Edge, and Fog Computing
- High-Performance, Distributed, and Parallel Systems
- Virtualization, Containerization, and Serverless Architectures

Track 2: Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning

- Deep, Reinforcement, and Generative Learning Models
- Federated and Edge AI
- Explainable, Responsible, and Trustworthy AI

Track 3: Data Science and Analytics

- Big Data Storage, Processing, and Management
- Data Mining, Stream Analytics, and Cloud Data Platforms
- Predictive and Prescriptive Analytics

Track 4: Communication, Networking, and Cybersecurity

- 5G/6G Networks and Edge Intelligence
- Cognitive and Software-Defined Networking
- Network Virtualization and Slicing

Track 5: Intelligent Systems and Automation

- IoT, Cyber-Physical Systems, and Smart Sensors
- Robotics, Drones, and Autonomous Vehicles
- Human–Machine Collaboration and Assistive Technologies

Track 6: Emerging Technologies and Future Trends

- Quantum, Neuromorphic, and Bio-Inspired Computing
- Blockchain and Distributed Ledger Applications
- Green, Sustainable, and Circular Computing Models

Best Paper Award:
The Best Paper Award will be presented to the outstanding paper(s) in recognition of their research quality, originality, and contribution. The award will consist of a Certificate of Recognition.
